RETIEW OF TRADE.

Suffolk, Va., Dec. 19—(Special).—Isanc Morgan and Alex, Newby both live in Nanschood county. They used to be friends. Now Newby fe having Morgan prosecuted for the alleged burglary of his home. Morgan, according to Newby, became familiar with the premises, and when he had a good opportunity broke in and stole clothing, cash and everything else he could get away with Constable J. S. Underwood arrested Morgan and to-day brought him to Suffolk. Chief Justice Eley heard the case this afternoon and Morgan was sent on for indictment.

Thomas Berry, Lee Holloman and Jake Williams, the West Norfolk board bill jumpers, have fixed up with ther former landlords. Now they are free again. "Hurricane" Branch took the three prisoners down there to be dealt with according to law but they managed to raise the cash, and when the debts were liquidated the warrants were withdrawn. The combined bill of the three was less than 35.

MARRIAGE AT CYPRESS

There was a quiet home marriage to-day at Cypress chapel. The principals were Miss Lydia E. Harrell, 19 years old, daughter of Elliah D. Harrell, and Martin Kinisht, aged 22 years. The groom is a farmer of Gates county, N. C.

A SENATORIAL LIE

But the Woman Got the Pension All

on dipatch describe of legislation that ht by the passage in insular reak of lexiciation that was runnt to l'ain by the parsage in the same of a private pension bill. Representative Fowler, of New Jersey, introduced ast session a bill to grant a pension of $29 per month to Mrs. Filiza G. Orane, which was referred to the Committee on Invalid Ponsions. In March McClellan reported the bill favoribly to the House, One week later it was passed by the House and sent to be Senate. On June 1st it was referred to the Committee on Pensions. Four alys later it was favorably reported and daced on the pension calendar, where it remained still designated as House it remained still designated as House it remained still designated as House the S-nate at that time. The Commis-sioner of Pensions placed Mrs. Pyne's name on the pension roll and she has since then drawn her pension of $20 per month, while the original bill under which this pension was granted until recently slumbered on the calendar of the Senate. The Senators now have quite a problem confronting them, in how to make their journal tell the truth. The journal says it passed June 11th.
